

814. Forest Nurseries-Reforestation

Establishment of a forest nursery (evaluation of the existing nursery market, assessment of production costs, nursery establishment area characteristics, nursery design, structure nursery, road network, fencing, building facilities, mechanical equipment). Management forest nursery. Collection, processing and preservation of seeds. Forest nurseries and soil. Irrigation. Production of bare root seedlings. Extraction of seedlings, transplanting, root cutting. Production of root crops (container types, characteristics of containers affecting production, container characteristics affecting nursery operations, container filler, fertilization of seedlings, irrigation of seedlings, measures of maintenance of seedlings, methods of transplanting). Production of seedlings rudely. Lubrication. Disease and weed management, control and control fungi and insects. Control, selection and numbering of seedlings, packaging and transport of seedlings.